El Paso Norte Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 352 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.8in. x 1.0in. The political education of mankind began in Greece, and in the time of Thucydides their political life was still young. Thucydides knew only of the small city-state on the one hand and on the other the vast barbaric kingdom; and yet, as has been well said of him: There is hardly a problem in the science of government which the statesman will not find, if not solved, at any rate handled, in the pages of...
