The National Institution, later changed to National Institute, was established on May 15, 1840, by the adoption of a constitution and a declaration of its objects, which were to promote science and the useful arts, and to establish a national museum of natural history, etc. The founding of this society, as Dr. Goode explains, was doubtless to a very great degree due to the stimulating and inspiring effects upon public opinion of the Smithsonian bequest. It acquired extensive collections of its own and for a short time also had custody of...

Reviews

This pdf may be worth acquiring. It is definitely simplified but surprises inside the fifty percent of the pdf. I am pleased to let you know that this is the very best ebook we have read inside my own lifestyle and could be the finest publication for ever.
