Xlibris. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 58 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.4in. x 0.6in. Hi, my name is R.J. I'm the baby in my family. All four of us siblings were born the same day. But I was the last to come out, so I guess that makes me the baby. My dad always wanted six kids but after me, Mama Lana said, Enough. I was a handful from the day we all were hatched and because I was the only boy to be born, Papa Rocco named me Rocco Jr. But everyone calls me R.J. My sisters are Minnie, Tina, and Annie. We live on a street called Fruits of the Spirit in Tree 9, Bosville, USA. There are nine trees on our street and each tree represents a level you've obtained as a family spiritually. The higher your tree number, the greater you are growing in Fruits of the Spirit. Not just any family can live on this street; you have to meet only one criterion as husband and wife to live on this street. The criterion is a willingness to live your life according to the spiritual principles represented by the nine fruits. My parents worked hard and it took quite a while because these nine principles take a lot of patience, endurance, and faith to develop in a person. But they didn't give up even in the midst of challenges; as a result, they were able to build their nest home in Tree 9 and start to raise their family. Our community is a close community, and we have beautiful trees that change colors according to the season. A lot happens on this street, and I can't wait to share with you some of the adventures we have endured as a family and as a community. So...
