Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From My Heart To Yours: Can Anybody Feel Me? is a book about an emotionally damaged woman, who never let go of, nor healed from the torments she experienced as a teenager dealing with molestation and unlawful copulation at only 13. The woman that she became entered into many relationships searching for a healing and happiness she believed she could have if she could replicate the love someone else once tried to give her, but because she was too young and naive at the time to realize it was in fact genuine, she destroyed her chance with that person. Then he came, the one she believed was the one and for a period of time it seemed as though she could have love, she had someone that saw past her demons and would help her fight her internal battles, he told her that she was not her past and that she was a purple diamond a rare beauty! He became her best friend, her lover, her world and then he left. When he did that, he moved the...
