Southside Kid Southside Kid, Tales of Chicagos Southside Book 1

By L. Curt Erler

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 304 pages. This autobiography follows a boys experience growing up on Chicagos Southside in the 1950s. Southside Kid is an autobiography that begins in the 1940s and tells of one boys experience growing up on Chicagos Southside. L. Curt Erler pays homage to a simpler time when families worked hard, stuck together and made their own fun. From the Big Band days and matinees at the Avalon Theater to dancing and drag racing on the Eastside this book shares one mans experience with the American dream. L. Curt Erler comes from a large, hardworking family and in his autobiography, Southside Kid; he pays homage to strong family values, to a simpler time at the tail end of WWII. The author recalls his childhood growing up on Chicagos Southside during the 1950s with baseball, matinees at the Avalon Theatre, young love and Friday night dances with the St. Felicitas kids. Moving into the mid-50s you find yourself surrounded by Rock and Roll and the sounds of Chicagos jazz joints. Southside Kids narrator is the only non-Catholic attending a Catholic school. Young Curt was fortunate and clever enough to make the best of this rather trying opportunity....
